

Rutgers has established the University Naming Committee (Committee) to review proposed naming opportunities and offer recommendations for accepting or rejecting these proposals to the President of the University and the Board of Governors. Rutgers is committed to preserving and protecting the legacy of the naming opportunity for its designated duration.

All building, academic unit, and academic program name recommendations should be submitted to the University Naming Committee by completing this form. Prior to completing this form, please review the Naming of Facilities and Programs policy for information related to guidelines, procedures, and criteria for naming university buildings, units, and programs.
